No yet. She will just be getting out of staff now if it doesn't run late. I will run up to her office in a few minutes and let you know:)

Hi David,

This works for me. Ruihong is in a staff meeting, so we will probably hear from her a little later.

We need to announce the new January commodity on Friday. Can we talk before then? Two of the possibilities we were looking at are milk and sweet potatoes.

Thanks! Diana
